How is art and culture present in the everyday lives of children? What role can children, art and culture play for the 17 sustainable development goals? In connection with the end of Aarhus 2017 European Capital of Culture, we will highlight the joint European nature of children, art and culture.

Wednesday 15.11: Seminar in Silkeborg

Thursday 16.11: Seminar/conference on early childhood, Silkeborg

Friday 17.11: Conference with a school perspective, AROS, Aarhus

Get in dialogue with a range of international professionals, artists, teachers and pedagogues and be wiser on the recent practice and research in children, art, culture and sustainability.

You will have the opportunity to put together the conference days and take part in the workshops, presentations and events that are most relevant for you.

The registration opens June 1st 2017

All content will be in English. Moderator: Christian Have.

For more information go to: www.bumkultur.dk

The seminar and conference are arranged in cooperation with Kulturprinsen, BUM - Network of Culture for Children and Youth in Central Denmark Region, Aarhus 2017-project Cultural Children of Europe, and Agency for Culture and Palaces incl. the European ACEnetwork.